

Information on assistive technology for people with dementia

www.atdementia.org.uk

A new website for professionals, carers and people with dementia providing information on...

- What assistive technologies are
- How they can aid the independence of people with dementia
- Available products (e.g. prompts, reminders, safety devices and communication aids)
- Case study examples
- Ethical guidance

at dementia
information on assistive technology for people with dementia

Hosted by Trent Dementia Services Development Centre
www.trentdsc.org.uk
Registered Charity (No.1109855)